DER MUSIKLITERATUR
PAZDÍREK & Co., K.-G.
WIEN

Ein Nachschlagwerk über die gesamte Musikliteratur aller Völker hat es bisher nicht gegeben. In Deutschland hat die Leipziger Verlagsfirma Fr. Hofmeister seit 1844 das „Handbuch für musikalische Literatur" in je 6—8 Jahrgänge enthaltenden Bänden herausgegeben, in welchen die ihr zu diesem Zwecke von den Verlegern in gedruckten Exemplaren eingesandten Kompositionen zur Aufnahme gelangt sind. Die Aufnahme erfolgte bis 1868 in den ersten 5 Bänden nach Klassen (Musikgattungen), von da an auch in alphabetischer Aufeinanderfolge der Autoren. Der „Hofmeister" enthält demnach in wenig übersichtlicher Anordnung einen großen Teil der deutschen und nur Bruchteile der nichtdeutschen Musikliteraturen. Außerdem sind in den ersten Bänden viele Musikwerke enthalten, die ihrer geringen Bedeutung wegen lange schon eingegangen sind und nicht mehr im Musikhandel geführt werden. Das Hofmeistersche Handbuch der musikalischen Literatur hat seinerzeit den Grund zu der gegenwärtigen Organisation des Musikhandels in Deutschland gelegt und viel dazu beigetragen, daß Leipzig sich zum Zentralsitze des Weltmusikhandels herausgebildet hatte —, aber in seiner zum Teil schon veralteten und unvollständigen Verfassung entspricht es nicht mehr den Anforderungen des modernen Weltmusikhandels. — In Frankreich erscheint seit 1811 die Bibliographie de la France in Wochenausgaben und seit 1875 die Bibliographie musicale in Vierteljahrsheften, worin ebenfalls nur die den Redaktionen in gedruckten Exemplaren eingesandten Musikwerke zur Aufnahme gelangt sind. Die 4730 und 116 Nummern dieser beiden Musikberichte eignen sich wohl zum Studium der französischen Musikliteratur, aber nicht auch als Nachschlagwerk zum Zwecke rascher Information über einzelne in Frankreich erschienene Musikwerke. Die russischen Vierteljahrsberichte und die nordamerikanischen „Bulletins" sind gleichfalls nicht übersichtlich und die kürzlich ins Leben gerufene Liste der neuen italienischen Zeitschrift „Ottocensettanta", sowie die in Lissabon erscheinende portugiesische Musikzeitschrift „L'art musical" enthalten naturgemäß nur die Literatur aus der allerletzten Zeit. Im gesamten übrigen Auslande fehlt es noch gänzlich auch an derartigen musikbibliographischen Ausgaben, so daß überall dort sowohl der Musikhandel, wie auch überhaupt die Musikpflege bei der Orientierung in der nationalen Musikliteratur jedweden Hilfsmittels entbehrt. Hieraus kann man den Wert und die Bedeutung des Universalhandbuches der Musikliteratur aller Völker ermessen und auch die Erklärung dafür schöpfen, daß das Interesse für dieses musikbibliographische Riesenwerk sich ganz besonders im Auslande bei der lebhaften Beteiligung an der Subskription kundgegeben hat.

Aus der Vorrede und dem Inhalte der ersten 11 Bände wird jedermann über den hohen Wert und die Verwendbarkeit des Universal-Handbuches für alle Interessenten — Musikverleger, Musikhändler, Musiker aller Berufskategorien, Redaktionen der Musikzeitschriften und auch aller Tageblätter, in denen über Musik regelrechter Bericht erstattet wird, belehrt werden. Nach Abschluß des ersten Teiles, dessen Herausgabe innerhalb des nächsten Jahres beendet wird, erscheint noch ein Ergänzungsband, in welchem alle Nachträge und die während dieser Zeit in Druck erschienenen Musikwerke zur Aufnahme gelangen werden, worauf dieser Teil des Universal-Handbuches in Vierteljahreslieferungen seine Fortsetzung finden wird. Inzwischen wird auch der 2—3 Bände umfassende dritte Teil, Werke und Schriften über Musik enthaltend, zur Herausgabe gelangen, und erst hierauf die Drucklegung des zweiten (historischen) Teiles, der in ca. 5 Bänden die in den Jahrhunderten 15—18 in Druck erschienenen, aber nur noch in Musikbibliotheken und Antiquariaten etc. vorhandenen Musikwerke in der mit Herrn Prof. Dr. Hugo Riemann vereinbarten und von uns bereits veröffentlichten Anordnung in Angriff genommen werden.

Begutachtungen über das Universal-Handbuch der Musikliteratur.

Der Wert des Universal-Handbuches der Musikliteratur für Musikverleger, Musikalienhändler, Musikgelehrte, Musikreferenten, Musikschulen, Bibliotheken, Musikvereine, Komponisten, Virtuosen u. A. ist unschätzbar und dieses, allgemeines Staunen erregende, musikbibliographische Riesenwerk reiht sich würdig der „Universal-Edition" an. Wien kann sich mit Stolz dieser Unternehmungen rühmen.

J. P. Gotthard. (Wiener Almanach 1906)

Das Universal-Handbuch der Musikliteratur von Franz Pazdírek liegt bisher in seinen ersten sechs Bänden vor und erweist sich als ein Sammelwerk von größter Gründlichkeit, welches in absehbarer Zeit wohl ein unentbehrliches Handbuch für alle musikalischen Vereinigungen, Konservatorien und einschlägigen Kunstanstalten werden dürfte. In Archiven und Kunstbibliotheken wird Pazdíreks umfangreiches Werk von besonderer Bedeutung werden. Soweit es mir bisher gegönnt war, dasselbe kennen zu lernen, macht es auf mich einen äußerst günstigen Eindruck und ich kann mit gutem Gewissen das Werk allen Tonkünstlern und Musikfreunden warm empfehlen.

Richard von Perger,
Direktor des Wiener Konserv.

Die Idee des Universal-Handbuches der Musikliteratur ist vortrefflich, weil nach einem solchen Buche ein tatsächliches Bedürfnis sowohl im Bereiche des Buch- und Musikalienhandels, wie auch in jenem der literarischen Sammlungen, wie Bibliotheken und Musikarchiven und nicht minder in Kreisen von konzertierenden Vereinigungen besteht, wenn man mitunter auch kurzsichtig genug ist, dies in Abrede zu stellen.

Wenn sie realisiert wird, so wird das — man kann es, ohne Prophetengabe zu besitzen, mit Sicherheit aussprechen — epochemachend sein.

Jeder, der sich mit den Erscheinungen auf dem Gebiete der Musik beschäftigt, muß die schwerfällige Umständlichkeit bitter empfinden, mit der er gegebenen Falles die verschiedenen Verlagsverzeichnisse, die Monatsberichte und das unbequeme, alle Dezennien erscheinende Whistling-Hofmeistersche Handbuch, die schier zahllosen periodischen musiktheoretischen und musikhistorischen Publikationen durchzustöbern sich gezwungen sieht, um zum Schluß das Gesuchte erst nicht zu finden, wenn es in irgend einem norwegischen, russischen oder selbst tschechischen Provinzverlag erschienen ist.

Diesem großen Mangel soll nun das Handbuch abhelfen, es soll nicht nur vollständig sein, sondern auch eine rasche und sichere Auffindbarkeit ermöglichen.

Wenn der Plan konsequent durchgeführt sein wird, muß das Universalhandbuch eine wahre Erlösung werden für alle, die Musikalienverzeichnisse benützen müssen.

Dr. Josef Mantuani,
Vorsteher der Musikaliensammlung in der k. k. Hofbibliothek in Wien.

Den Band I des Universal-Handbuches der Musikliteratur habe ich schon wiederholt als ein sehr angenehmes und bequemes Hilfsmittel von hohem und bleibendem Werte erprobt.

Dr. Kopfermann,
Vorsteher der Musikaliensammlung der königlichen Bibliothek in Berlin.

Mit großem Interesse habe ich den ersten Band des Universal-Handbuches der Musikliteratur durchgesehen und muß ihm meine aufrichtige Anerkennung zollen für diese umsichtige, klar angeordnete und mit so großer Sachkenntnis durchgeführte ungeheuere Arbeit, mit der sich der Herausgeber ein unvergängliches Denkmal errichtet.

E. von Pakisch,
i. F. von Festenberg-Pakisch & Co., Musikverlag in Hamburg.

Die Redaktion des Universal-Handbuches hat ein großes und praktisches Ziel vor Augen. Da ein Nachschlagewerk für die Musikliteratur der ganzen Welt bisher nicht existiert hat, ein solches aber für ausübende und forschende Musiker immer unentbehrlicher wird, so ist eigentlich zu verwundern, daß der Plan zu einem derartigen Handbuche nicht schon längst von den sonst weit unternehmungslustigeren deutschen Buchhändlern verwirklicht wurde. Die Aufgabe ist dem Umfang nach eine ganz außerordentliche. Schon die Sammlung jener Werke, die noch durch den Musikalienhandel beziehbar sind, wird zwanzig Bände beanspruchen. Ein zweiter historischer Teil wird die Musikalien umfassen, die nur noch in den Bibliotheken und Antiquariaten zu finden sind. Es dürfte, wenn es gut durchgeführt wird, das wichtigste Hilfsmittel der Musikwissenschaft werden. Ein dritter Teil endlich soll die Schriften über Musik umfassen. Interessant wird im ersten Teil auch die Erwähnung sämtlicher Nachdrucke werden. Die vorliegende erste Lieferung, 96 Seiten, gestattet begreiflicherweise nur einen flüchtigen Einblick in den Wert des Werkes, aber selbst dieser nötigt uns zu einigen Worten höchster Anerkennung des zur Sammlung angewendeten Fleißes und der übersichtlichen Anordnung. Dem Universal-Handbuch gebührt der Dank und die werktätige Unterstützung aller an der Musikliteratur interessierten Kreise.

Dr. Richard Wallaschek.

Das Universal-Handbuch der Musikliteratur ist in seiner riesigen Anlage das erste derart existierende. Zum erstenmal nun sehen wir ein Werk vor uns erstehen, das alles, was überhaupt an Musikliteratur existiert, aufnimmt. Es wird in der Studierstube des Musikers den Platz sich erobern, den das Konversations-Lexikon in jedem gebildeten Hause einnimmt.

„National-Zeitung" (Basel).

Wien, 11. Dezember 1903.

Ein „Universal-Handbuch der Musikliteratur" halte ich für ein dringendes Bedürfnis. Die Förderung, welche Musik-Wissenschaft und Musikleben durch ein solches Nachschlagebuch erfahren, wird sicher groß und von Bedeutung sein. Der Gedanke, ein solches Werk zu schaffen, ist deshalb ein äußerst glücklicher und verdient alle Unterstützung. Durch eigene Anschauung habe ich mich davon überzeugt, daß die Vorarbeiten zu diesem Riesenwerke mit großer Umsicht und Sachkenntnis gemacht werden und bereits weit vorgeschritten sind.

Prof. Dr. J. Pommer,
Reichsrats-Abgeordneter.

Mein lieber verehrter Herr Pazdírek!

Im Besitze der mir übersandten „Reichenberger-Zeitung", beglückwünsche ich Sie zu dem Erfolge, den ich Ihnen vom Herzen gönne. Ist es doch Ihrer nie rastenden Tätigkeit, Ihrer kolossalen Energie zu danken, daß Sie trotz Berge von Hindernissen alles hinwegzuräumen imstande waren und nun Ihre kühne Idee verwirklicht sehen. Mit Ungeduld sehe ich dem Eintreffen der ersten Lieferung des Universal-Handbuches entgegen u. wünsche Ihnen, daß neben der verdienten Genugtuung auch der klingende Erfolg laufen möge.

Ihr Sie hochschätzender

Ernst Challier sen.,
Herausgeber der Speziallexikons in Gießen.
